West Cobb's New Classic-American Style Home Community Celebrates Grand Opening

Homes By Brumby is putting the final touches on the first three homes at their new home community in West Cobb. The brand new Classic-American architecture offers a grand streetscape with one-half acre homesites, affording homeowners abundant front and backyards, and privacy with rear-entry garages. Generous use of brick, Hardi-plank, shake and stone will provide elegance and enhancement of each of the homes. This elegant cluster of 24 custom homes is set amidst a wooded backdrop of mature trees and nature's landscaping affording the feel of an established community although it is brand new. The look and setting of each home will be finely crafted and scripted by renowned builder, Homes by Brumby. Interiors are loaded with many upgrades including: gourmet kitchens, detailed molding and trim and upscale flooring. Each home also includes a professionally designed and expertly manicured lawn. The grand entry, sidewalks, front porches, covered entries and split paved driveways complete the uniqueness of this one of a kind neighborhood.

Conveniently located minutes off I-75 and I-575 in West Cobb County, Homes By Brumby is the builder and the community is developed by PEC Development Group. Models are open daily and are ready for first preview. Home prices start from the high $400s to mid $500s. Children will attend new middle and high schools: Hillgrove High. Lovinggood Middle and Cheatham Hill Elementary. The Keller Williams Realty Around Atlanta sales associates are Donna Hesketh and Ken Alcott, and they can be reached at 770.427.0210.
